Overview

What is a manufacturer warranty?

When purchasing a new product, especially high-ticket items like electronics, appliances, or fitness equipment, a manufacturer warranty often comes with the purchase. This warranty serves as a promise from the manufacturer that the product will perform as expected, or they will repair or replace it if it doesn't.

Can a warranty be voided if a product is damaged?

If the product is repaired or modified by anyone other than the manufacturer or an authorized service center, the warranty may be voided. Unauthorized repairs can complicate the issue and make it difficult for the manufacturer to guarantee the product's performance. What to look for in Manufacturer's Warranty Terms and Conditions.

What is a warranty & how does it work?

This warranty serves as a promise from the manufacturer that the product will perform as expected, or they will repair or replace it if it doesn't. However, the details of what's covered and what's not can often be a source of confusion.
