Overview

Who is responsible for the energy sector in Gabon?

The Ministry of Petroleum and Gas and the Ministry of Energy and Hydraulic Resources share responsibility for the energy sector. SEEG, the national electricity and water service company of Gabon, was under a concession to the French company Veolia from 1997.

Can Gabon become a regional energy hub?

As Gabon transitions from oil dependency to cleaner energy, gas-fired power generation will bridge the gap and support the country's shift. Key infrastructure developments, such as the Owendo plant and floating power solutions, position Gabon for long-term energy security and enhance its potential as a regional energy hub.

How will Gabon expand its power generation capacity?

The demand for advanced technology, skilled labor and power generation services will continue to rise as Gabon expands its electricity generation capacity, presenting significant opportunities for companies in gas extraction, power generation and transmission.

What is a natural gas plant in Gabon & Wärtsilä?

Developed by Gabon Power Company in partnership with Wärtsilä under a build-own-operate-transfer IPP model, the plant will primarily utilize natural gas from Gabon's offshore fields to generate electricity, addressing both growing domestic demand and facilitating regional energy trade.
