

Sweden Gothenburg Chemical solar container system

Overview

Is solar energy a good investment for Sweden?

“Sweden is a young market for solar energy with large potential. The country has ambitious sustainability goals, and solar energy can play an important role in achieving them,” says Tomas Lundkvist, country manager for Sweden at Novar.

What is Gothenburg port cluster?

Our ambition is to create green logistics chains so that the big picture is in focus. With innovative measures, the Gothenburg port cluster is positioning itself as a global pioneer in sustainable shipping and green energy solutions.

Is Gothenburg a good place to invest in renewables?

“Gothenburg is one of the fastest growing regions in Sweden when it comes to renewables and there is a lot of competent people and companies in the region that we can connect with,” says Tomas Lundkvist. The focus in Sweden initially is on building solar parks in sizes from 20 hectares and up.

Why is Gothenburg a green port?

Through active participation in international collaborations and unique sustainability measures, the Gothenburg port cluster is positioning itself at the forefront of the global green transition. This gives us great opportunities to exercise influence, even though we are a small port from a global perspective.
